THE REV. ROBT. STUDTMANN
First Vice-President

Slocomb New Head Of Local Lions Club

Don B. Slocomb, superintendent of Giddings Public Schools, has been named to head the Giddings Lions for the coming year.

Slocomb succeeds Emil G. Richter to the presidency.

Other officers elected by the club at its noon luncheon meeting Tuesday are the Rev. Robert Studtmann, first vice-president; Dr. A. F. Vickers, second vice-president; A. W. Siegmund, secretary-treasurer; Paul Spitzenberger, tail twister; Robert Pieratt, assistant tailtwister; Durwood L. Fuchs, director-at-large; and Brown O. Spivey, lion tamer.

The officers will be installed at a later date.

The club also voted to abide by the by-laws of the organization which specify that any member of the club who misses more than four meetings in a row without a good excuse be dropped from the membership roll.

Next meeting of the club will be on Tuesday, April 10.
