

The Giddings Star

April 14, 1955

Mrs. Fletcher Feted
On 93rd Birthday

Mrs. Marie Fletcher, one of Giddings' most beloved Christian women, was honored on her 93rd birthday April 5 with a dinner in her home

The honoree was presented with a beautifully decorated cake, lovely corsages, and many other beautiful flowers, also many pretty and useful gifts.

Friends came by and Mrs. Fletcher, very active and alert, enjoyed the day and the visits of all. Those who celebrated with her at the dinner party were Mrs. Bert Fariss, Mrs. Beulah Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carleston, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Toler.

On Mrs. Fletcher's birthday eve Miss Eleanor Fletcher and friends gave Mrs. Fletcher a six o'clock dinner.

Those enjoying this occasion were Misses Irma Averett, Rubie Rousseau, Bess Black, Mrs. Mabry Knox, Mrs. H. C. Carleston, Mrs. R. A. Toler, Miss Eleanor Fletcher and Mrs. Marie Fletcher.
