Claydell Hooter Honored.

Last Thursday afternoon little Claydell Hooter celebrated her sixth birthday with a group of her little friends.

Many games were played including pinning the donkey's tail on. John Allen Carleston was given a General MacArthur pin bearing the words, "Win With MacArthur," for pinning the donkey's tail in the right place. Flags were given as favors.

After pictures were taken of the happy group, the candles were blown out on the birthday cake which was a rose-blush Angel Cake decorated with six small flags, six miniature aeroplanes and six candles.

A lovely plate, consisting of ice cream and cake, each plate bearing a red, white, and blue aeroplane, was served to the following: Judy Bushell, John Allen Carleston, Jane McIntosh, Nancy Jane Bolsins, Sarey Cowan, Emily Fariss, Frances Gayle Folkes, Diana Mae Witte, Pat McGuire, Priscilla Ann Falke, Jackie Placke, and Betty Lou Register, Claydell's cousin from Shreveport, Louisiana.

Many lovely gifts were received by the little honoree.
