CONTRIB COLUMN

Farwell, Texas,

Feb. 24, 1942

Dear Friends and Editor:

How is everyone in good old Lee County? We are all just fine out here in West Texas. It has been rather cold here for the past several days. A cold norther has been blowing. We are really wishing it would snow some yet before the winter is over. The soil needs moisture before much plowing can be done. Many people still have a great deal of their feed in shocks in the field because they have been unable to get threshers.

I would like to tell about the birthday surprise that was given for mother, Mrs. Mary Kube, on Sunday night Feb. 22. A number of friends and relatives gathered at her home to celebrate her 64th birthday. It was all a surprise to Mrs. Kube. The guests all brought cake and sandwiches. A special birthday cake was made and presented to her by her daughter-in-law Mrs. Ernest Kube. Those attending the celebration were: Martin Kjegel, Alvin Kriegel, B. H. Kube, Albert Kube, Ernest Kube, Eddie Ramm, J. A. Kaltwasser, Walter Schwede, G. P. Meissner, and families, Albert and Elsa Kelms, Rudolph Kube, August Bodling of Vernon, Texas, and Mrs. Mary Kube, the hostess. The evening was spent playing games and informal visiting. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served. The guests departed wishing Mrs. Kube many more happy birthdays.

I must close now and here's hoping that some of Lee County friends will write. Best wishes to the News and its readers.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Velma Kube.
