

The Giddings Star

September 8, 1955

Rev. Naumann is Surprised with Party
On Birthday Sunday

The Rev. G. T. Naumann was pleasantly surprised with a birthday party last Sunday night by a number of his members.

There were games of skat, "42", and Pinochle and an exchange of pleasant conversation. The climax of the evening came when all joined in singing hymns of praise and thanksgiving, after which Pastor Naumann opened the packages he had received containing many practical gifts.

Refreshments followed to end an evening which the pastor of the Manheim congregation will long remember, as another evidence of how his members appreciate the Gospel which he is privileged to preach among them.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arldt and son James, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Birnbaum and sons, Franklin and Allen Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Birnbaum, Mr. and Mrs. E. Heintze and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kieschnick and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kissmann, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Koslan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Saegert and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wachsmann, Carolyn, Victor and Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Woelfel and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schwausch.

Others would have been present had they known about the party in time.