Baster I. Coment.

Dear Volksblatt!

So that we will not be forgotten in your columns, I want to send in the little that I know to report. Now I want to tell very first of a wedding that has happened here.

Namely Mr. Ernst Symank, brother of the undersigned and Miss Anna Richter. The wedding took place on the 10th of this month. Pastor Ermisch addressed edifying words to the couple. Where the Lord does not build the house, the work to build the house is in vain. After the wedding, the young couple received many congratulations and blessings from friends and relatives. Now, as usual, we went to the house of the bride's parents, where the guests soon found a table spread with good food. The witnesses for the couple were:

Willie Symank – Bertha Richter

Otis Richter – Maria Symank

Also a keg appeared on the scene. Well, the thing was full. Now, with the drink and food and happy conversation, the hours went by way too quickly. So again "Best luck and blessings" for the young couple and may your life's path lead you toward heaven.

Also, the daughter of the undersigned, Frida Charlotte Agnes, received holy baptism at the same place as the wedding of the young couple. [The location was St. John's Lutheran Church in Coryell City, Texas.]

Richard Heintze, along with Sister Pauline, was here to visit relatives and also to attend the wedding. Well, Richard it was nice! Come back soon. As already reported, our new St. John's Church will be dedicated on the 20th of December. Hopefully it will be good weather, so that quite a lot of visitors can attend. I will bring a report about the church dedication later.

Where are the two old comrades Müller and Schulze? Are there some even in The Grove, to help the correspondent make sausage?

Finally, I will wish all the readers of the Volksblatt, as well as the Volksblatt man, a happy and merry Christmas.

That's it for the Volksblatt. Gustav A. Symank
