

The Giddings News

August 24, 1923

Judge Alexander to Retire.

In this issue of the News, there appears a statement from Dist. Judge Alexander of Caldwell stating that he will retire from that office at the expiration of his present term.

Judge Alexander has enjoyed the esteem of the members of the bar, the jurors and the public at large in his administration of the office. He is friendly, courteous and of a pleasing temperament. He is a fine jurist and conducted his Courts with dispatch. With him, the law is supreme, and he tempered justice with mercy. Many a first offender has been given helpful advice by Judge Alexander. He carries with him the best wishes of many friends with whom he was associated while on the bench.

The News understands that Hon. R. W. Mayfield the present district attorney will aspire to the district Judgeship, since there will be a vacancy. Mr. Mayfield would not have opposed Judge Alexander, had the present incumbent desired the office further than the present term.