

The Giddings News

October 17, 1941

Likes The Home Town Paper.

S. N. (Newt) Alexander writes from Fulton, Miss. where he is city marshall and tax collector that crops are good there. Corn is plentiful, hay is fine and cotton is a large output. He sends his regards to his friends in Giddings and says he thinks of them often. The editor is glad Newt who says he needs the Giddings News is getting along so well and wishes him continued success.