

The Giddings News

February 6, 1931

STALLED COUPE HIT BY TRAIN

A small coupe belonging to Mack Anderson (colored) and driven by his wife with her sister along, stalled at the crossing Thursday afternoon near the colored school. She was trying to start the motor when her sister noticed the east-bound passenger train approaching. The women jumped just in time to escape. The engine struck the coupe, knocking it from the track and damaging it some. No one was hurt.