

Doris Arldt GHS Valentine Queen, Elmo Miertschin Is King of Fete

Miss Doris Arldt, senior student at Giddings High School, was crowned queen at the annual Valentine Coronation Thursday, Feb. 9.

Elmo Miertschin, senior, was king.

They were selected from six honorary nominees—Judy Vahrenkamp and Bobby Mutschink from the freshman class; Lena Mae Frosch and Erwin Jenke, sophomore class; and Carol Jaehne and Harold Schumann, junior class. Prince and Princess were Carol Jaehne and Erwin Jenke.

Visiting school favorites in the court were Miss Jean Foyt and Johnny Vacula, La Grange; Miss Florene Frosch and Billy Tom McDaniel, Lexington; Miss Janeen Franz and Bobby Rau, Columbus; and Miss Billie Jo Moncure and Ronnie Carpenter, Bastrop.

Also in the presentation ceremony were A Cappella Choir Sweetheart and escort, Lois Naumann and Clifford Teinert;

Band Sweetheart and escort, Nancy Joiner and Jack Weidemann; Homecoming Princess and King, Karen Fricke and Norman Neitsch; FFA Sweetheart and FFA President, Sadie Mae Mitschke and Harold Pieratt; FHA Sweetheart and FHA vice president, Gladys Ahlschlaeger and Larry Lerche; High School Favorites Gerald Zoch and Carolyn Hilton, freshmen; Eunice Urban and Leroy Bieberstein, sophomore; Lavine Jenke, and Harold McDoanald, junior. Barbara Helmers and Kenneth Cowan, seniors.

Elementary school favorites presented were Kay Deavers and Tommy Droemer; and Primary grades were Stephanie Willard and Bill Hilton.

Bearer of Queen's bouquet was Debbie Kriegel and Al Vickers Jr. was crown bearer. Train bearers were Jo Ann Huettig and Charles William Vahrenkamp.

Allan Marburger served as master of ceremonies.