

The Giddings News

June 29, 1923

Collison

Sunday afternoon Oscar Armstrong while riding his bicycle on one of the good surfaced streets of Giddings and an auto collided. The result was that Oscar's nose and lips were cut and one tooth was knocked out. He was given medical attention promptly and is doing well.