

The Giddings News

November 9, 1923

Paul Artmann has purchased a large plow which has two large plows attached which turn the dirt both ways at one plowing. It also has two coulters attached. The plows and attachments are supported by a frame which runs on wheels. Four mules pull it. Lee County farmers are adding considerable new machinery this year.