

The Giddings News

June 30, 1950

Benjamin H. Bailey
Elected Teacher of Vocational School

Benjamin H. Bailey of Cameron was elected last Friday as fourth year agriculture teacher for the Lee County Vocational School. Mr. Bailey is a graduate of A&M College in Agricultural Education. He is scheduled to take up his duties here on July 1.

The fourth year theory classes will be held at Lincoln two night per week, while the shop and demonstration work will be carried out in groups in Giddings and Dime Box, according to F. B. Curry, co-ordinator of the school.