Mr. C. M. Bishop,
The Giddings News,
Giddings, Texas.

Dear Old Friend:

You will find attached check paying in advance my subscription to the News up to 1944. As I have been reading my old home-town paper for nearly fifty years, I do not want to be without it soon.

As you know my mother's subscription expired as she read it up to her death. The News has been coming to our name ever since there was a Giddings News, but now it must end as my father died in 1930 at the age of 75 and my mother at the age of 83 years, 3 months.

When I was a boy out at Good Hope, I wrote articles for the Giddings News. I am pleased to note that old Good Hope is doing a nice job in Red Cross donations as I know personally how hard it is to make money at Good Hope, but it is a fine spot to grow up in.

Your old friend,

R. C. Barnes.
