

The Giddings News

June 17, 1932

CORN BLOWN DOWN

Emil Behrens reports corn blown down very much by the hard wind Friday morning of last week. His corn was laid by, but it will need more rain for maturity as many of the roots are exposed. The corn crop in Lee County was cut short by so much being blown down.