

The Giddings News

January 15, 1932

FELL FROM TREE

Paul Berger, Grassyville farmer, was trimming the trees in his yard Wednesday afternoon and fell. A bone in his neck was dislocated and he was treated in Austin where the bone was set back in place. He was brought home at 11 o'clock Wednesday night and was resting better Thursday morning. He did not lose consciousness, but his legs were paralyzed for a while. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.