

The Giddings News

November 10, 1922

Ben Schulze is up from the convalescent hospital at Houston visiting his parents at Serbin. He reports Garret Bernstein as having been declared total and permanently disabled and will probably remain in the hospital the next six months.