

The Giddings News

June 27, 1924

August Blar returned Saturday from a hardware convention in Houston. August said they were served sea food at a big supper, but he could not go crabs and shrimp. However, when the fried chicken and potatoes came around, he was at home. It's wonderful how a person from the country stays with his raisin'.