

The Giddings News

January 13, 1922

Lee Bishop almost happened to a serious accident. He and Dilmus Ball were tearing down a resident and the gallery fell on Lee and pressed him to the ground. Had it not been for a portion of the gallery lodging on a fence it might have been serious for him.