

The Giddings News

May 16, 1924

Serious Accident

Sunday afternoon Joe Bissell and some other boys were playing at the home of his mother when Joe was standing behind the smoke house and as he darted around the corner a walnut thrown by O'Barr Rost hit Joe in the eye. Joe was given prompt medical attention and went to Austin Monday, fearing that the sight in the eye might be injured.