HAYS BOWERS ANNOUNCES

In other column of this paper will be found my announcement for the office of District Judge of the 21st Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Burleson, Washington, Lee and Bastrop Counties.

With reference to my announcement for this important office I have this to say:

I have practiced law at Caldwell, Texas for about 22 years. I attended the State University of Texas, and was admitted to the bar in January 1910. I was appointed City Attorney of Caldwell, Texas in January 1911 and held it until January 1915. I was elected County Attorney of Burleson County, Texas in 1914 and held office from January 1915 until January 1923, at which time I voluntarily retired. Since that date I have been in the active practice of law. As to my ability as a lawyer, I refer you to the lawyers of the State and District that know me, as such; and as a layman I refer you to the citizenship of the town of Caldwell, Burleson County and the people in the 21st Judicial District. I am 47 years old and reside at Caldwell, Texas. I solicit the vote and influence of all citizens, and assure each make an active campaign and see you in person if possible.

Hays Bowers,
Caldwell, Texas.
