

Collision Brings DWI Charge, Fine

One Lee Countian was booked on a DWI charge last week Thursday following a two-car collision at the West Yegua bridge on Highway 77 north Thursday night.

No injuries were sustained in the collision which involved a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Wm. Schulze of Dime Box and a 1950 Pontiac owned by James W. Brown of Corpus Christi.

Both cars were damaged extensively. The State Highway Patrol investigated the accident, Sheriff Vernon A. Goodson said, and names of the driver and other occupant of the Pontiac were not available here.

Schulze pleaded guilty to the DWI charge. Sheriff Goodson said, and was fined $50 and costs and lost his driver's license for a period of six months.
