

The Giddings News

May 30, 1924

Jim Brown of Beeville was here this week looking after his farm property in Beat Five. He says that things in Lee County look good to him and that his section has good crops. Last year his section did not make much crop on account of the drought. Boll weevils are already appearing in Bee County crops this year. Miss Eloise Brown accompanied Jim up here.