J. P. BUCHANAN WILL STAND FOR RE-ELECTION

The Giddings News is advised that Congressman J. P. Buchanan will be a candidate to succeed himself and his announcement to the public will be made soon. He is at present busy attending the Congress which is in session in Washington and will not take the time to leave until some important matters are disposed of. A petition signed by numerous citizens of Lee County, has been filed with the County Executive Committee requesting that his name be placed on the ballot. Similar petitions were signed and filed in the several other counties.
