

The Giddings News

November 14, 1941

John Carney of Houston was a caller at the News office Saturday. He is planning on moving back to Blue, his former home. The many friends of the family will regret to learn that Mrs. Carney has been totally blind the past few years and there is no hope of her improvement.