

The Giddings News

December 12, 1924

John Carney shipped his household goods and farming equipment Thursday to Orange Grove, near Corpus Christi where he will make his home. His many friends in Lee County wish him well in his new location. He had the News to follow him to his new address.