

April 28, 1955

Peggy Carter of Lexington Is Lee Co. Farm Bureau Queen

Peggy Carter of Lexington, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Dismukes, was chosen Lee County Farm Bureau Queen Tuesday night.

Miss Carter received $25 from the Lee County Farm Bureau and will compete in the District 10 Farm Bureau Queen Contest at a later date. Winner of the district contest will be entered in the state contest.

The other contestants each received $5 for participating in the county contest.

Runner-up to Miss Carter was Patricia Slocumb, daughter of Supt. and Mrs. Don B. Slocumb of Giddings.

Harold Moore of Austin, district service agent for Farm Bureau, was master of ceremonies. Also present was District Farm Bureau Director R. A. Fuchs of Brenham, and the judges, Mr. and Mrs. Shep McClarren and Miss Bickett of Cameron.

Rev. Robert Studtmann offered the invocation.

Entertainment was by the A

Capella Choir of Giddings High School and vocal selections by

PEGGY CARTER
Lee County Farm Bureau Queen

Mrs. Verlon Feller of Lexington, accompanied by Mrs. Robt. Woods of Lexington at the piano.

Carolyn Bohot provided piano selections for the Queen's Revue.

Miss Carter, the Queen, and Miss Slocumb, the runner-up, will appear on television on station KTBC-TV, Austin, Channel 7, Monday, May 2 at 6:45 a. m.