NEW CASHIER AT FIRST STATE BANK.

Hugh Cherry, formerly of this city, as local agent for the H. & T. C. railway, returned here last Friday and accepted the position as cashier of the First State Bank, and entered upon his duties as such that day. He is too well known to our people to need any word of praise from us, but suffice it to say, for the benefit of those who may not be personally acquainted with him, that he is a clever, accommodating gentleman, one with whom it is a pleasure to do business, and the bank is to be congratulated on securing him for this important place. He and his estimable wife are domiciled at J. R. Hargraves' for the present until they can obtain a residence and their many friends will gladly welcome them back to our town, where we know they feel at home.
