

The Giddings Star

July 30, 1953

To Get Award

THOMAS G. CHERRY

Thomas G. Cherry, Teacher of Vocational Agriculture in the Giddings High School, has been singled out by the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas as the one teacher in Southeast Texas to receive a fifteen year distinguished service award.

Cherry will receive a bronze lapel pin for his fifteen years of outstanding service as a teacher of Vocational Agriculture in the Public Schools of Texas. The awards are made only to Vocational Agriculture Teachers who have rendered outstanding service to their communities and to the State of Texas over a period of years. Cherry was selected by the Association because of his organization program for Agricultural improvement in the Giddings community.

Cherry will receive his award at the annual meeting of the Association at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas on August 6.