

The Giddings News

February 6, 1931

ACCIDENTS
WITHIN A WEEK

Friday, Martin Peter's coupe collided with a truck load of brick at Butler. His companion Mr. Alexander received some fractured bones of his right forefinger.

Sunday, coupe driven by Douglas Hill overturned one mile east of Giddings, injuring Winston Hill, age 11 years. Douglas was slightly hurt.

Monday, large coach driven by Mrs. D. T. Childress with her mother and aunt, overturned into a small stream four injured.

Monday afternoon, Esther Bradshaw, colored, was standing beside his car on the highway east of Giddings when a stranger ran into him, almost tearing his right ear off, and damaging his car. The stranger gave him a half dollar and went on.