

The Giddings News

February 8, 1924

John Christiansen happened to the misfortune of getting a piece of nail stuck in one of his eyes. He was driving a nail and it shattered, a piece lodging in the eyeball. He had it removed but he suffered considerably.