

The Giddings News

July 31, 1931

CHICKENS CAME HOME

Thursday night of last week Jim Clark missed a number of fryers and hens. He began to make diligent inquiry about and served notice on the buyers of poultry. Sunday morning his chickens were all back. The editor has heard of high winds blowing a chicken door open and the chickens going back home, but no high wind was noticed Saturday night.