

The Giddings News

April 7, 1950

Culberson Withdraws
From Governor's Race

Olin Culberson was knocked out of the governor's race Wednesday by a heart attack, the Associated Press reported.

Culberson's doctor said the attack was light but that a strenuous campaign would seriously endanger the life and health of the 63-year-old railroad commissioner.