

The Giddings News

July 31, 1931

FIRE ALARM SUNDAY

The fire alarm was sounded Sunday afternoon when the house of Dan Davis (colored) and contents burned completely. It was about a mile east of the city limits. The family had cooked dinner at noon and had gone away later. The cause of the fire is unknown. Only a few chairs were saved.