

The Giddings Star

August 25, 1955

DR. W. REX DAVIS, wife Nell and son Larry are now residing in Timson, Texas where Dr. Davis has reopened the newly decorated fourteen room clinic there. Dr. Davis, a Giddings High School graduate, attended Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos. Upon graduating from Southwest he was honored by being accepted at three accredited Medical Schools. They were Tulan, Southwestern and the University of Texas Medical School. Dr. Davis chose the latter where he was graduated in June of 1954. He then interned at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston having completed his training in June of this year.

Dr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Davis of Giddings.
