

The Giddings News

August 11, 1922

New Cotton

The first cotton to be ginned this season at Giddings was a round bale raised by Morris Deman (colored) in the Concord community. Henry Witte ginned the bale Saturday afternoon which is the first cotton of this season's growth to be marketed from Lee County. Several bales have been marketed this week, and also a few last week, but they were grown several miles from Giddings in Bastrop County.