

The Giddings News

January 30, 1931

ATTEMPTED ASSAULT ON A. DIETRICH

Some one gained entrance into A. Dietrich's house Saturday night through a window and had grabbed him about the neck. He began screaming and the intruder made his escape after having scratched Dietrich about the face. No clue has been found. Dietrich managed to get hold of a piece of wood before he was released, but did not get to use it. Dietrich's screams were heard at the depot. The purpose of the assault has not been ascertained.