

The Giddings News

August 29, 1941

Mr. E. A. Domaschk was out driving his automobile this week. He suffered an almost severe accident some weeks ago when his automobile turned over with him, injuring a limb. You just can't keep these grandmas and grandpas down and there is no wonder that grandchildren these days are so smart, they have to keep up with grandma and granddad.