

The Giddings News

August 26, 1932

Richard Dorsett, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dorsett, happened to an accident last Saturday afternoon. He was riding in an automobile which was driven rapidly over a dip in one of the streets of Giddings, and was thrown up and against the car, his head receiving a blow which rendered him unconscious for a while. He is now much better.