

The Giddings News

December 21, 1923

Victim of Accident

Mrs. Charles Douglass of Lexington who was injured in the automobile accident with her husband who finally died from the injuries, is still in the hospital. She is suffering with her jaw bone and three ribs broken and her spine injured. It has not been determined whether she will recover or not, depending on the extent of the injuries to her spine.