

The Giddings News

August 7, 1942

BIG PEANUT ACREAGE

Indications now point to a heavy crop of peanuts. One more rain would improve the crop but there will be a good harvest. Robert Durrenberger reports peanut vines lapping in the furrows which is better than usual. There will be a big crop of peanut hay harvested under normal weather conditions. The government has not yet announced the price of peanuts grown under the government program. Last year the price was $1.32 per bu.