

The Giddings News

June 12, 1931

QUAIL IN THE HOUSE

Walter Emmerich found a quail in the large room upstairs of the city hall Saturday. It had gotten in by flying up the stairway and in trying to get out flew against a large window pane and broke it. It also broke its neck. It had drifted in from the country in some peculiar manner. The glass panel fell to the sidewalk below.