

CHANGE IN BUSINESS.

Ernst Keng has purchased the grocery business owned and conducted by Mrs. E. Fischer, and will take charge Jan. 1st. Mrs. Fischer will return to her farm out near town where she says is more contentment and she can raise chickens, keep her cows and sell butter-fat, raise hogs and take life with much more ease than by selling groceries. Mrs. Fischer has some three or four boys who are old enough to do good work on the farm and she now realizes she would have done better by remaining on the farm than moving to town.
