

The Giddings News

April 24, 1942

HALF SALARY TO BONDS

Richard Fischer, who is employed by a large wholesale firm in San Antonio, called on the News editor Saturday while visiting the home town. Richard says he is investing half his monthly paycheck in bonds because his son is entering military service and he would not like to think he does not do his part in supporting the boys on the firing line.