

The Giddings News

September 5, 1924

Fine Horn Received

Alvin Foerster received his fine bass horn Thursday which will be used in connection with the Giddings brass band. The instrument is a beauty and represents an investment of $250. Henry Lehmann, the leader of the band, is well pleased with the encouragement he is receiving from the enthusiasm the band members are showing, and it is planned to give the first open air concert before many more weeks.