Mr. Clyd Folkes, the efficient clerk in the Post Office for the past several months, resigned his position there the first of the year and will leave this week for Waco where he will attend Toby Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knox of Dime Box are now residents of Giddings. Mr. Knox succeeded Clyde Folkes as clerk in the Post Office and Mrs. Knox succeeds Miss Bessie Black as teacher in the Giddings school. Miss Bessie has the primary grade now, formerly taught by her sister, Miss Effie, who resigned at the close of the holidays. Mrs. Knox resigned her position as teacher in the old Dime Box school and accepted the vacancy here as Mr. Knox was coming to Giddings. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Knox to our midst and am sure they feel muchly at home this being her old home before her marriage, and Mr. Knox has visited here from time to time and really seems natural to see him here every day.
