

New County Judge

M. F. KIEKE

Changes At The Courthouse

The new year will bring several changes at the Lee County Courthouse.

Mr. M. F. Kieke, former county attorney will move down into the county judge office as he has been elected County Judge of Lee County.

Mr. Thos. W. Thompson, the new County Attorney will move into the office now occupied by Mr. Kieke. Mr. Thompson is not a new man in that office as he served as county attorney during the time Mr. Kieke served in the Navy to sidue the Japan World War II.

The District Clerk's office will have a new occupant, Mr. Richard E. (Weedy) Folkes, a World War II veteran, who will succeed Louis Knox, appointed to the office.

The new officers will be sworn in on January 2, January 1st. being a legal holiday.
