

Korea Vets Have Reunion In Austin

Memories of 6 months combat in Korea was revived when members of the 223 Infantry Regiment, 40th. Infantry Division held their annual reunion in Austin.

The vets shown in the picture are mostly men from Central Texas, among them is Corporal Norris Fritsche, 912 East 50th., Austin.

He is the fourth man in the back row reading from the left.

Cpl. Fritsche is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Fritsche, long time readers of the 'Star'

This year's reunion of the Korean vets was a gala affair long to be remembered by everyone present.
