

The Giddings News

October 24, 1924

Farmer Injured

Ewald Fritsche of Dime Box was cutting stalks Saturday when his team ran away and he received a number of cuts on the body. The flesh was cut to the bone on one arm and leg and he was considerably bruised up. He was given medical attention and is improving.