

The Giddings News

February 29, 1924

Business Changes

Herman Fritsche has purchased the vacant lot of ground just west of the Giddings Paint Shop, and will combine the two properties and erect a filling station. Work will not be begun for a while, at least. The proprietors of the Giddings Garage will vacate their present location in the Eichler building as Mr. Eichler is planning to enlarge his business at that place.